

WEAVE SUPER SERIES

WEAVE
SUPER SERIES

Weave is dedicated to enabling retailers and manufacturers to achieve transformational change and sustainable impact.

Our super series will bring 4 key events from November 2018 to February 2019 that are at the heart of every CEO's agenda. Join us during our executives luncheons, share your experience and learn from others in our community.

WEAVE SUPER SERIES SCHEDULE

EPISODE 1
NOV 2018

US vs China Tariff War: Threat or opportunity to revisit your supply chain fundamentals?

This event will focus on providing key levers to drive incremental value in your supply within a 12 month timescale through the lens of manufacturing excellence and planning.

DEC 2018

Change management: We all agree of its importance but how come we cannot get it started?

This event will provide practical tips to senior managers to consider when developing a transformation program. The event will be made of successful real-life case studies.

Retail is dead, long live retail: Design is at the center stage of retail successes - Are you doing enough?

This event will present how new comers swipe the market shares from long established retailers and how a design-led-organization can have direct impact to your top-line.

FEB 2019

Digital Retailing or the re-birth of bricks & mortars

This event will present creative ways in which retailers are reinventing the customer experience and position their stores as an extension of the new customer journey.

These executive luncheons are free of charge for our community members. Follow our LinkedIn to instantly become part of our community.
